

Expand Your Career

Internship – Sports Event Management Assistant

For this internship, you will be working in Beijing, China for a global sports marketing and management company.

About the Company:

The company was Founded in August 2004, and is a global sports marketing and management company. It is specialized in Sports Events Management, Athlete Agent Services, Sports Team BD Services, Sports Market Consultancy, Sports Products Promotions and Agent Services etc., and is one of the leading professional sports marketing service providers with the best local Chinese resources and the strongest management capabilities. Dress Code - Formal

Job Description:

- Overall responsible for the company's latest events in the early period of project activity planning and execution work on site
- Assist with field staff training and supervision of staff to complete the work
- Writing project activity summary report, including improvement comments and suggestions
- Assist with PR events organization and execution
- Supervise the overall quality of company events

To Apply:

- Check our website www.route2china.ch and send your Resume to min.wang@route2china.ch

Your specialist for internships, language studies, study trips & business programs in China